Global Senior Wellness Conference

October 23 (Thu) – 24 (Fri), 2025

Hosted in Wonju, Gangwon Province.

With populations aging rapidly across Korea, China, and Japan, senior wellness is no longer a future issue, it's a vital, present-day priority. This conference is a space for international dialogue, bringing together key leaders from across Asia to share insights, build partnerships, and explore real-world solutions for healthy aging.

Join lectures and wellness activities led by experts in senior care, innovation, and policy with focused discussions on topics like healthcare, social connection, age-friendly design, and emotional well-being.
